USER GUIDE

-Aditya Gupta, Adarsh

Features in the application

1)SIGN IN-
Users can sign in and create their account by entering their information.

2)Login-
Existing users can log in to their profiles through the passwords they has set up while signing in

3)Browse Products-
After logging in, the customer can browse products by selecting the category of products they would like to browse. The list of products and categories would be visible on their screens

4)Adding products to cart
While browsing products, users can choose if they want to add a product into their cart along with its quantity.

5)Clearing cart-
Users can view their cart and decide to empty their cart.

6)Placing order-
Users can place order of their cart which also leads to an empty cart

7)Admin(adding category)-
The admin has the power to add new to categories of products to the database.

8)Admin(adding product)-
The admin has the power to add new products to the database according to the category of the product

9)Admin(Updating product)

The admin has the power to update the attributes of a product which can be its name, stock or price.

Menus in the Application

1) Main Menu
2) Customer Menu

3) Admin Menu
4) Product Menu